

VILLAGE OF LAIRD BYLAW #2012-01

BYLAW OF THE VILLAGE OF LAIRD, IN THE PROVINCE OF SASKATCHEWAN, TO HAVE UTILITY CONSUMERS SELF-READ AND REPORT WATER METER READINGS QUARTERLY, AND TO CHARGE A METER READING FEE .

The Council of the Village of Laird in the Province of Saskatchewan enacts as follows:

1. For the purpose of this bylaw, the expression:
(a) "Municipality" shall mean the Village of Laird
2. Water meters shall be read quarterly and reported to the Village of Laird Office by the consumer. If the consumer refuses to self-read their water meter on a quarterly basis, they may be charged a $5.00 fee when a Municipal employee is required to read the meter. Such charge shall be added to and included in the Utility charges and collected in the same manner.
3. This bylaw shall come into force and take effect on the date of passing by the Council of the Village of Laird.
